

UNSW Division of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion recognises that

Joe Vu Nguyen

was a

University Ambassador

involved in Year 9 Imagined Futures: NSW Equity Consortium in 2021.

Eileen Baldry
Deputy Vice-Chancellor
Division of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

University Ambassador Statement of Achievement

2021

Name: Joe Vu Nguyen

Access and Equity (Students) Program Engagements for 2021

Year 9 Imagined Futures: NSW Equity Consortium

In-school program building student capacity to access tertiary education.

Ambassador capacities

Purposeful preparation	Demonstrates a sophisticated understanding of the learning experience content and University Ambassador role through confident delivery, effective structuring and pacing of activities.
Facilitating learning experiences	Effective
Clarity of instruction/communication	Communicates instructions reasonably clearly, drawing on some strategies to increase student understanding, evidenced by students mostly displaying on-task behaviours.
Personal narrative	Presents an interesting personal narrative that is reasonably well structured, includes some references to common/relatable challenges to connect with students and build rapport
Answering questions	Consistently provides clear and accurate answers to questions in a confident and engaging manner. Demonstrates sophisticated knowledge of higher education and of appropriate resources to refer students to. Students frequently respond in a way that demonstrates satisfaction with the answer provided.
Adaptive responsiveness	Confidently and successfully adapts to changing, challenging and unforeseen circumstances including the highly effective prioritisation of key components of the learning experience
Collegial and collaborative	Demonstrates consistently high professional standards across all aspects of their work and demonstrates collegiality and respect at all times when working with others.

Comments

Joe is particularly committed to the engagement of less responsive students show by focusing his attention on the students throughout the entire lesson.